

Udall Application Information and Instructions for UM Students

The Udall Foundation seeks future leaders across a wide spectrum of environmental fields, including policy, engineering, science, education, urban planning and renewal, business, health, justice, and economics. The Foundation also seeks future Native American and Alaska Native leaders in public and community health care, tribal government, and public policy affecting Native American communities, including land resource management, economic development, and education.

All applicants for the Udall Scholarship must be nominated by their home university. UM students who wish to be considered for nomination must follow the instructions below for submitting applications and supporting documents to the Office of Prestigious Awards and Fellowships by the campus deadline: January 25, 2024. A faculty committee will review the applications and decide on the nominees. Nominated students will receive further instructions on submitting applications by the national Udall deadline in early March.

Scholarships are offered in any of three categories:

- To students who have demonstrated commitment to careers related to the environment; or
- To Native American and Alaska Native students who have demonstrated commitment to careers related to tribal public policy; or
- To Native American and Alaska Native students who have demonstrated commitment to careers related to Native health care.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Be a U.S. citizen, U.S. national or permanent resident.
- Be a college sophomore or junior (see udall.gov for how Udall determines sophomore/junior status)
- Be committed to a career related to the environment OR committed to a career in tribal public policy or Native American health care (only Native Americans and Alaska Natives are eligible to apply in tribal public policy or Native American health care)

Udall Scholarship application consists of:

- An application form
- An 800-word essay
- A current college transcript and transcripts for other colleges attended;
- Three letters of recommendation that speak to your leadership, public service and academic achievements

In addition, Native American and Alaska Native students in tribal public policy or health care must submit copies of relevant enrollment forms or descent documentation (for more information, see FAQs on Udall website.)
